INTRODUCTION

Risk Management Services is a professional business aimed at providing an effective, personalised service to all its clients.

No large national security service is able to effectively provide this individual attention to its clients due to the magnitude of their business and vast number of contracts.

We are a company concerned with the reduction of unemployment. We aim to eliminate poverty alleviation by means of empowering our personnel to achieve personal goals and stability in their lives. Businesses throughout the world require guarding services, we offer high-quality services and we ensure that our clients get their money's worth, after all we need you just as much as you need us.

OUR COMPANY HISTORY

Risk Management Services is a privately owned company established in 1997 by Craig Tyrone Pagel. Today, the company is directed by Ashton Pagel, who, together with Craig, brings over 38+ years of combined experience in the security industry. Their leadership and dedication have been instrumental in building the company into the reputable organization it is today.

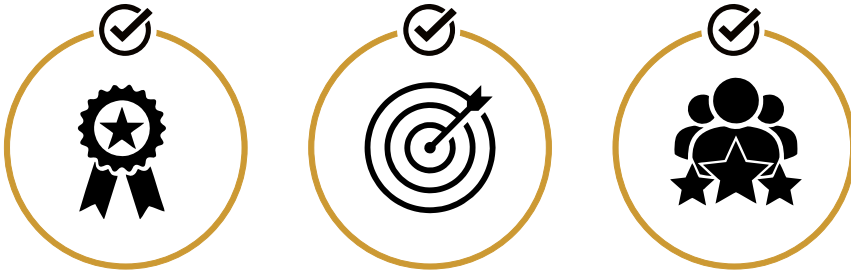

Over the past 30+ years, Risk Management Services has earned a solid reputation for reliability, professionalism, and a strong commitment to community upliftment. The company takes pride in having provided employment opportunities to many individuals throughout its history.

Operating under the name CST Security Risk Management Services, the business has grown from strength to strength. A core part of its success lies in its unwavering focus on understanding the unique needs of each client. We are committed to delivering effective, tailored services that meet the specific requirements of every site, customer, and client.

GUARDING

Industrial, Commercial & Residential Guarding Services

Risk Management Services Security guards are trained to fit into your company, so they can interact with your personnel and clients in a natural and proactive manner. They are capable of dealing with almost any emergency situation that may arise.

Our Security Officers are trained to conduct diligent patrols around the site and to locate any vulnerable areas along the perimeter. Constant Patrolling is a necessity, which is why we provide a complete and structured patrolling service aimed at reducing risk and incidents. We provide smart, identifiable uniformed guards that do not portray a militant image. We feel that the client should respect their security personnel and not be intimidated by them.

We offer highly competitive remuneration packages to our employees thus ensuring that the risk of theft and intimidation is reduced. Provident Fund, 13th Cheque and Performance Bonuses are also part of the company structure thus creating well motivated and disciplined Security officers.

We have well-trained and efficient Supervisors and Site Managers that are equipped to handle all situations that they might encounter. Sites are visited on a daily basis by our competent Supervisors and weekly feedback meetings ensure that the client is always informed.
